

RADIO, TV AND DIGITAL MEDIA AWARDS

Call for Entries

The RIAS Berlin Kommission presents annual awards for excellence in reporting on transatlantic issues. Awards are presented in three categories: Radio, TV and Digital Media. In order to qualify a report must have been on a German topic aired domestically in the U.S. or on a U.S. topic aired in Germany, or be another local, national or international story of mutual interest, be it on politics, economics, security, social issues, culture or current events and developments. Entries from recent and former RIAS Fellows are welcomed and encouraged.

RADIO AND TV AWARDS

Entries must be radio or television stories aired in 2019 and may be single stories or multi-part series. There is no length requirement. All U.S. entries must be submitted electronically, with a URL for the story.

Entries must include:

- your name, title, business address, phone, e-mail,
- air date(s) of your story and its running length,
- title and a brief description of your story,
- a brief description of your role in the production of the story.

DIGITAL MEDIA AWARD

This award will honor all kinds of German or American stories posted on the internet in 2019. All entries must be submitted electronically, with a URL for the story, and any additional materials should be submitted as an attachment. Accurate web addresses leading to the website(s) must be transmitted by Email to the RIAS Berlin Kommission.

Sites must be active and accessible by the RIAS jury at the time of judging, and not require any proprietary information for access.

Entries must include:

- your name, title, business address, phone, e-mail,
- posting date(s) of the story, its running length, word count,
- title and a brief description of your story,
- a brief description of your role in the production of the story.
